

We are looking for people who love to write about dance!

Simone Wood was an avid supporter of dance and her family launched this award on Simone's birthday, April 3rd, to honour her life-long passion that she gave to successive generations. The Simone Wood Award is available to any book creators who publish their work through Sharing Books. Eligible works must be focused on dance, dance themes, and/or the history and development of dance.

Submissions are due May 31st, 2009.

Awards will be granted to the top three downloaded books in the month of June, 2009.

1st place prize is
$300.

2nd place is $200.

3rd place is $100.
